Customer Reviews

Full disclosure: I did not purchase this through . The book itself is a quality item, with good paper, binding, and typesetting. The illustrations of Edmund Dulac really add to the effect of reading Poe's work. Although Poe is best known for his fiction, in my opinion he was far better at writing poetry than he was at storytelling. From horror, to the pain of loss, to wistful romance, chances are good that you'll find something to suit your fancy in "The Raven and Other Poems." This book does not contain all of Poe's verse, but most of it, and all his best poems are included. They are as follows (in order):
The Raven
The Bells
Introduction
Eulalie - A Song
Annabel Lee
Sonnet - Silence
To One in Paradise
Lenore
